Fund commentary

As economic data confirmed the growth momentum, investors entered 2026 with a "risk-on" positioning. Valuations rose for risk assets across different asset classes and regions. The dollar continued to decline pending the decision on the appointment of a new Fed governor. We began the year with an equity overweight, which enabled us to benefit from the bullish market environment. The technology sector, and notably ASML, Infineon and Baidu, contributed substantially to performance, as did the banking sector once again this month. Our bond exposure was kept at high levels to benefit from retreating yields and elevated carry. We increased our hedging on the dollar as well as our exposure to emerging equities.

Sustainable development goals exposure

This chart represents the main exposures to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and their 169 targets. Exposure is defined as the opportunity, for each company, to contribute positively to reaching SDGs, providing their products and services. This exercise doesn't aim to measure the companies effective contribution to SDGs, which is computed through our societal contribution (CS) and net environmental contribution (NEC) metrics. For each invested company, activities are analysed in order to identify those which are exposed to SDGs. For a same activity, its number of targets can vary between 0 and 2. The company target exposure to one of its activities is weighted by the revenue share gained from this activity. For more details, our annual SRI report is available in our ESG documentation.

No significant exposure : 27%
